Dear Jim:

Attached are some materials which I think you ought to have. If you are able to help Mr. Barson with his record of receipts and expenditures, please give him a call or write him a note to that effect.

Since you will be taking the depositions of many of the witnesses listed on the third page of the 3-page memorandum, you may wish to ask them questions along the suggested lines so as to avoid the necessity of going back to secure affidavits from these individuals.

I assume you are meeting your responsibilities as chaperon.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Willens
